Exploring Capri from the hotel

Piazzetta

To get to the Piazzetta, just walk up the road which leads to Via Roma and, within a couple of minutes, you're in the center of Capri.

Anacapri

You can catch buses to Anacapri from the "Due Golfi" stop, close to the hotel.

Marina Piccola

From the area of Capri known as Due Golfi (5 minutes from the hotel), a series of steps leads down to Marina Piccola and the beautiful little beaches overlooking the Faraglioni. If you don't want to walk, you can always take a bus to Marina Piccola instead.

Marina Grande

Right next to the hotel, there's a flight of steps leading down to the port and the fishing district of Marina Grande (less than 10 mins). From Marina Grande you can sail around the island or to the Grotta Azzurra, aboard one of Capri's traditional fishing boats.

Car park

We have parking places near to the hotel. This said, given that, for great part of the year, non-residential cars are not allowed on the island and that most of Capri is pedestrian, we strongly suggest you leave your car on the mainland and rent a scooter instead!

Hydrofoils and ferries to Capri depart from Naples and Sorrento.

In the summer months, sea crossings are also available from Positano, Amalfi, Salerno and the island of Ischia.

Times of crossings are subject to variation and it's always a good idea to check the hydrofoil and ferry schedule before you travel to the port.

There's no need to book ferry or hydrofoil tickets in advance. This said, if you are traveling in the peak holiday months of July and August, you can expect to have to queue significantly longer before boarding.

For much of the year, you will be not able to take your car to Capri. In any case, the island is largely pedestrian and a car is of very little use here.

Getting to Capri from Rome

From Roma Fiumicino Airport: from Fiumicino airport, the quickest way to reach Rome's main Roma Termini railway station is by the Leonardo Express train.

From Roma Termini, you'll need to take a train to Naples.

There are three categories of train:

- Eurostar Freccia Rossa (TAV): by far the fastest option, the journey between Rome and Naples by Freccia Rossa train takes little more than an hour. Tickets cost circa 40.00 euro.
- Intercity: the journey Rome- Naples by Intercity takes about two hours. Tickets cost about 20.00 Euro.
- Interegional: with tickets costing just over 10.00 euro, the Interegional train is the cheapest choice. The downside is that the journey Rome-Naples takes a whopping four hours.

From Roma Ciampino Airport: take a bus to Rome's Roma Termini railway station and proceed as above.

You can expect to take at least three hours to reach Capri from Rome, considerably longer if you happen to miss a connection.

Getting to Capri from Naples

Naples has two ports from where to catch boats to Capri: Molo Beverello and Calata di Massa. Molo Beverello is situated directly opposite the city's Maschio Angioino castle. Calata di Massa lies just slightly to the East (i.e. to your left when you face the sea).

Hydrofoils depart from Molo Beverello, fast ferries and ferries depart from Calata di Massa. Vehicles are transported by ferry or fast ferry only.

Times and prices change frequently: always check crossing times before heading to the port.

Getting to Molo Beverello from Naples' Capodichino Airport

Bus: immediately outside Terminal 1 (where all incoming flights land) you'll find the Alibus: the coach which takes passengers to the center of Naples and stops at both Piazza Garibaldi and Piazza Municipio (this latter only a three minute walk away from Molo Beverello). The journey takes approximately 40 minutes.

Taxi: the taxi stand is located outside Terminal 1. Ask the driver to apply the fixed rate to the port (approximately 20.00 euro). Avoid anybody offering taxi services inside the airport: we guarantee they will not be licensed taxi drivers.

Getting to Molo Beverello from Naples' train station

Take a taxi! Although buses and trams run regularly from the train station to the port, they are always extremely crowded and there is no way of knowing when to get off. In addition, you will need to cross the entire piazza to reach the bus stop. The fixed taxi fare to the port is about 10.00 euro.

Getting to Capri from Sorrento

Hydrofoils and ferries depart from Sorrento's Marina Piccola port on a regular basis. The journey takes less than 30 minutes and crossings are frequent, especially so in the summer season.

You can catch a bus to the port from the center of Sorrento, or make your way on foot, walking down the steps which start in Piazza Tasso.

Top tip

Hydrofoils from Sorrento to Capri sail along one of the most beautiful stretches of coast imaginable: sit on the left-hand side of the boat to get the best views!
